

Serviced Office Space in China

167 Qingnian Street

Shenyang 110016

This workspace offers more than just a place to work. Its proximity to transport links, restaurants, and shopping centers makes it the perfect location for networking and collaboration with other local businesses in this culturally diverse region. Proximity to renowned nightlife makes this the best spot to unwind after work and still be close enough to commute on business trips, as international airports are situated just a few kilometers away from the site. With thoughtful details at hand, this workspace is easily accessible but also within reach of amenities that enhance quality of life.

The workspace offers a spacious coworking area with hot seats, dedicated seats, and private offices in different sizes. With a keen emphasis on amenities and accessibility, each office is designed to ensure maximum efficiency and safety. 24-hour access allows for more flexibility during work; the inclusion of a lift, kitchen, shower, lounge, printer, copier, and bike storage ensures that all daily needs with ease. This center is open to all members seven days a week, making the workplace vibrant and essential for networking and arranging client meetings. Moreover, this center offers everything needed for sustained success.
